Holliday Park Playground: Reimagined

The Holliday Park Playground has reached the end of its lifespan, and you can be a part of creating a brand new, inclusive, versatile, and vibrant commons with imaginative play features and improved accessibility!

More than just a refresh of play equipment, the new design utilizes natural materials and the existing topography to create a space that is fun, engaging, and unlike any other playground in Indianapolis.

Every dollar counts, and your support will be appreciated by generations to come. Give securely and learn more about the project at HollidayPark.org/Playground!
